

ORANGE COUNTY REGIONAL HISTORY CENTER

OUT of this WORLD FASHION SHOW

ORIGINAL DESIGNS BASED ON SUPERHEROES & VILLAINS

See superheroes and villains come alive on the runway as talented fashion design students from the International Academy of Design & Technology-Orlando project their fantasies on fashionable bodies.

Date: Saturday, March 6, 2010
Location: Orange County Regional History Center
Reception: Mingle with contestants and judges at 6 p.m.
Showtime: Fashion show begins at 7 p.m.
Tickets: $10 for Historical Society Members,
$20 non-members.

Visit thehistorycenter.org for more information. Call (407) 836-7010 for reservations now. Seating is limited.

Parking is available at the Public Library garage on Central Blvd.

Emcee:

Dan Williams, Multimedia Department Chair, International Academy of Design and Technology; competed as "Parthenon" on the Sci Fi Channel reality show "Who Wants to Be a Superhero?" (season 2)

Judges:

Sven J. Bode, publisher, Orlando Style magazine
Harriett Lake, philanthropist
Douglas J. Nesbitt, photographer
Jean Patteson, Orlando Sentinel fashion reporter

Special Guest Judge:

"Project Runway" (Season 7) designer from Lifetime's runway-reality hit – Ben Chmura, contestant from Tampa

Wayne Sysock
Photography

